(a) The purpose of this chapter is to establish the minimum standards for the:

1. Planning, design, inspection, and construction of new adult municipal detention facilities or renovation of existing facilities; and

2. Administration of adult municipal detention facilities. These minimum standards include guidelines for:

- i. Security and control; and
- ii. The supervision and care of detainees.

Amended by R.2002 d.206, effective July 1, 2002.

See: 34 N.J.R. 1307(a), 34 N.J.R. 2312(b).

In (a), rewrote the introductory paragraph and deleted "Establish the minimum criteria for the" in 1 and 2.

Amended by R.2007 d.225, effective August 6, 2007.

See: 39 N.J.R. 1394(a), 39 N.J.R. 3384(a).

In (a)1, inserted "; inspection,"; in (a)2, inserted "These minimum standards include guidelines for:"; and added (a)2i and (a)2ii.

10A:34-1.2 Scope

This chapter shall be applicable to the New Jersey Department of Corrections, the Bureau of County Services, and all adult municipal detention facilities.

10A:34-1.3 Definitions

The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Body cavity search" means the visual inspection or manual search of a person's anal or vaginal cavity.

"Canine search" means a search conducted by a canine team consisting of a handler(s) and a dog(s) specially trained to discover and indicate to the handler(s) the presence of various substances and/or materials.

"Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Corrections.

"Contraband" means:

1. Any item, article or material which is not authorized for retention or receipt, found in the possession of, or under the control of, a person who has been detained, arrested or lawfully confined; and/or

2. Any article that may be harmful or presents a threat to the security and orderly operation of a municipal detention facility. Items of contraband shall include, but shall not be limited to:

- i. Guns and firearms of any type;
- ii. Ammunition;
- iii. Explosives;
- iv. Knives, tools and other implements not provided in accordance with municipal detention facility regulations;
- v. Hazardous or poisonous chemicals and gases;

10A:34-3.3 Pat search

(a) A pat search shall be conducted while the detainee is fully clothed. A pat search includes both the touching of the detainee's body through clothing, including hair, dentures, etc., and a thorough examination into pockets, cuffs, seams, etc., and all personal property in the detainee's possession.

(b) Pat searches of detainees may be conducted at any time where conditions indicate a need for such searches.

(c) In addition to the foregoing routine searches, a pat search may be conducted at any time when there is a reasonably clear indication that the detainee is carrying contraband.

(d) Pat searches may be conducted by either male or female custody staff members regardless of the sex of the inmate.

10A:34-3.4 Strip search of a person(s) who has been detained or arrested for commission of an offense other than a crime

(a) A person who has been detained or arrested for commission of an offense other than a crime and who is confined in a municipal detention facility shall not be subject to a strip search unless:

1. The search is authorized by a warrant or valid documented consent;

2. A recognized exception to the warrant requirement exists and the search is based on probable cause that a weapon, controlled dangerous substance, contraband or evidence of a crime will be found and the custody staff member authorized to conduct the strip search has obtained the authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge;

3. The person is lawfully confined and the search is based on a reasonable suspicion that a weapon, controlled dangerous substance, contraband or evidence of a crime will be found, and the custody staff member authorized to conduct the strip search has obtained the authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge; or

4. Exigent circumstances prevent obtaining a search warrant or authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge and such exigent circumstances require custody staff to conduct a strip search in order to take immediate action for purposes of preventing bodily harm to the officer, person or others.

(b) As authorized in (a) above, a strip search of a person shall be conducted:

1. At a location where the search cannot be observed by unauthorized persons;

2. By a custody staff member of the same sex who has been authorized to conduct the search;

3. By the number of custody staff members deemed reasonably necessary to provide security;

4. Under sanitary conditions; and
5. In a professional and dignified manner.

(c) The custody staff member authorized to conduct a strip search shall file a written report to be made a part of the record of the detained or arrested person in accordance with this section. The report shall be reviewed by the supervisor who authorized the search and filed in accordance with internal management procedures. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. A statement of facts indicating any reasonable suspicion or probable cause for the search;
2. A statement of the exigent circumstances requiring immediate action to prevent bodily harm to the custody staff member(s), person or others when such conditions existed;
3. The name of the custody staff supervisor in charge who authorized the search;
4. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) conducting the search;
5. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) present during the search and the reason for custody staff presence;
6. An inventory of any item(s) found during the search; and
7. Any supporting documentation consisting of the warrant or consent when such documentation is the basis for the search.

(d) Reports required pursuant to this section shall not be deemed public records; however, upon request, such reports shall be made available to:

1. The New Jersey Department of Corrections Commissioner, or designee;
2. The municipal detention facility custody staff supervisor in charge;
3. The Attorney General;
4. The county prosecutor; and/or
5. The person searched.

Rewrote (a) and (b); and added (c) and (d).

10A:34-3.5 Strip searches of a person(s) who is lawfully confined for commission of a crime

(a) A person lawfully confined for commission of a crime shall be strip searched when the custody staff supervisor in charge authorizes confinement in a municipal detention facility or transfer to an adult county correctional facility, the custody staff member authorized to conduct the strip search obtains the authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge and one of the following exists:

1. A search warrant or valid documented consent; or
2. A reasonable suspicion that the person is concealing a weapon, controlled dangerous substance, contraband or evidence of a crime.

(b) A strip search may be conducted in any of the following circumstances:

1. When the custody staff supervisor in charge authorizes the search;
2. Before placement under psychological observation or suicide watch; or
3. After a contact visit.

(c) The authorized strip search of a person who has been confined in a municipal detention facility for the commission of a crime shall be conducted:

1. At a location where the search cannot be observed by unauthorized persons;
2. By a custody staff member of the same sex except as set forth in (e) below;
3. By the number of custody staff members deemed reasonably necessary to provide security;
4. Under sanitary conditions; and
5. In a professional and dignified manner.

(d) A strip search shall include a check for:

1. Body vermin;
2. Cuts;
3. Bruises;
4. Needle scars; and
5. Other injuries, where appropriate.

(e) Under exigent circumstances, a strip search may be conducted by a custody staff member of the opposite sex and/or in the presence of only those custody staff members deemed reasonably necessary for security of the opposite sex, as ordered by the custody staff supervisor in charge.

(f) For all strip searches conducted in accordance with this section, the custody staff member authorized to conduct a strip search shall file a written report to be made a part of the record of the person as set forth in this section. The report shall be reviewed by the supervisor who authorized the search and filed in accordance with internal management procedures. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. A statement of facts indicating any reasonable suspicion that is the basis for the search;
2. A statement of the exigent circumstances requiring the presence of a custody staff member of the opposite sex;
3. The name of the custody staff supervisor in charge who authorized the search;
4. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) conducting the search;
5. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) present during the search and the reason for custody staff presence; and
6. An inventory of the items(s) found during the search.

(g) Reports required pursuant to this section shall not be deemed public records; however, upon request, such reports shall be made available to:

1. The New Jersey Department of Corrections Commissioner, or designee;
2. The municipal detention facility custody staff supervisor in charge;
3. The Attorney General;
4. The county prosecutor; and/or
5. The person searched.

(b); in (c)2 and (e), substituted "custody staff member" for "person" and "sex" for "gender" throughout; in (c)2, deleted "and" from the end; in (c)3, inserted "members" and substituted a semicolon for a period at the end; added (c)4 and (c)5; in (e), inserted "members" preceding and "reasonably" following "deemed" and substituted "supervisor" for "member" preceding "in charge"; and added (f) and (g).

10A:34-3.6 Body cavity searches of a person(s) who has been detained or arrested for commission of an offense other than a crime

(a) A person who has been detained or arrested for the commission of an offense other than a crime shall not be subject to a body cavity search unless:

1. The search is authorized by a warrant or valid documented consent; or

2. The custody staff supervisor in charge authorizes the transfer of the person to an adult county correctional facility; the person is lawfully confined in an adult county correctional facility; the search is based on a reasonable suspicion that a weapon, controlled dangerous substance, contraband or evidence of a crime will be found; and the person authorized to conduct the body cavity search has obtained the authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge.

(b) When the search is authorized in accordance with (a) above, the person shall be escorted immediately to the medical unit or hospital used by the facility and the body cavity search of the person who has been detained or arrested for commission of an offense other than a crime shall be conducted:

1. Under sanitary conditions;

2. At a location where the search cannot be observed by unauthorized persons;

3. By a licensed medical professional who must be of the same sex as the detained or arrested person;

4. In the presence of only those custody staff members deemed reasonably necessary by the custody staff supervisor in charge for security, who are of the same sex as the detained or arrested person; and

5. In a professional and dignified manner, with the maximum courtesy and respect for the person.

(c) The person who has been detained or arrested for the commission of an offense other than a crime may:

1. Remove the object in the presence of the licensed medical professional and a custody staff member of the same sex as the person; or

2. Be examined by the licensed medical professional who may remove the object in a medically accepted manner and environment, without the use of force.

(d) In the event it is determined that a foreign object, which contains metal is present in the body cavity of the person who has been detained or arrested for the commission of an offense other than a crime, such object may be removed only by the licensed medical professional in a medically accepted manner and environment, with or without the use of force if the custody staff supervisor in charge has authorized a body cavity search based on a duly authorized search warrant or a valid documented consent of the person involved.

(e) In the event the custody staff supervisor in charge or the licensed medical professional has determined that nonmetal contraband is being concealed in the body cavity of the person who has been detained or arrested for the commission of an offense other than a crime, and police are not able to obtain a search warrant for the search, and that person refuses to permit contraband removal, the person may be placed in isolation. During isolation, that person shall be treated in a medically accepted manner and environment as deemed necessary by the licensed medical professional and may be kept under visual surveillance to detect removal or elimination of the contraband.

(f) The person authorized to conduct a body cavity search shall file a written report to be made a part of the record of the detained or arrested person in accordance with this section. The report shall be reviewed by the supervisor who authorized the search and filed in accordance with internal management procedures. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. A statement of facts indicating any reasonable suspicion for the search and that the search was conducted in a medically accepted manner;
2. The name of the custody staff supervisor in charge who authorized the search;
3. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) present during the search and the reason for custody staff presence;
4. The name(s) of the licensed medical professional(s) conducting the search;
5. The reason for use of force, if necessary; and
6. Any supporting documentation consisting of the warrant or consent when such documentation is the basis for the search.

(g) Reports required pursuant to this section shall not be deemed public records; however, upon request, such reports shall be made available to:

1. The New Jersey Department of Corrections Commissioner, or designee;
2. The municipal detention facility custody staff supervisor in charge;
3. The Attorney General;
4. The county prosecutor; and/or
5. The person searched.

10A:34-3.7 Body cavity searches of a person(s) lawfully confined for the commission of a crime

(a) Under no circumstances may a body cavity search be conducted on a person who is lawfully confined in a municipal detention facility unless:

1. The search is authorized by a warrant or valid documented consent; or
2. The custody staff supervisor in charge authorizes the transfer of the person to an adult county correctional facility; the person is lawfully confined in an adult county correctional facility; the search is based on a reasonable suspicion that a weapon, controlled dangerous substance, contraband or evidence of a crime will be found; and the person authorized to conduct the body cavity search has obtained the authorization of the custody staff supervisor in charge.

(b) When the search is authorized in accordance with (a) above, the lawfully confined person shall be escorted immediately to the medical unit or hospital used by the municipal detention facility and removal of contraband shall be conducted:

1. By a licensed medical professional of either sex;
2. Under sanitary conditions;
3. At a location where the search cannot be observed by unauthorized persons;

4. In the presence of only the custody staff member(s) deemed reasonably necessary by the custody staff supervisor in charge for security, who are of the same sex as the person; and

5. In a professional and dignified manner, with maximum courtesy and respect for the person.

(c) The lawfully confined person may:

1. Remove the object in the presence of the licensed medical professional and a custody staff member(s) of the same sex as the person; or

2. Be examined by the licensed medical professional who may remove the object in a medically accepted manner and environment, without the use of force.

(d) If the custody staff supervisor in charge authorizes a body cavity search in accordance with (a) above, the foreign object, which contains metal may be removed only by the licensed medical professional in a medically accepted manner and environment, with or without the use of force.

(e) In the event the custody staff supervisor in charge or the licensed medical professional has determined that nonmetal contraband is being concealed in the body cavity of the lawfully confined person, and police are not able to obtain a search warrant for the body cavity search, and the person refuses to permit contraband removal, the person may be placed in isolation. During isolation, that person shall be treated in a medically accepted manner and environment as deemed necessary by the licensed medical professional and may be kept under visual surveillance to detect removal or elimination of the contraband.

(f) A written report of the results of a body cavity search shall be made a part of the record of the person and shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. A statement of facts indicating any reasonable suspicion for the search and that the search was conducted in a medically accepted manner;

2. The name of the custody staff supervisor in charge who authorized the search;

3. The name(s) of the custody staff member(s) present during the search and the reason for custody staff presence;

4. The name(s) of the licensed medical professional(s) conducting the search;

5. An inventory of any item(s) found during the search; and

6. The reason for use of force, if necessary.
